

THA Religion and Worldviews Learning Journey

Onwards: How can we apply what we have learnt to the world around us?

Should people be forgiven for what they have done wrong?

How should criminals be treated and what are the different aims of punishment?

What are the different types of crime and the reasons for these?

How do religious followers respond to victims of war?

What is war and can it ever be justified?

Theme D: Peace and conflict

Types of relationships

Marriage

YEAR 11

Gender equality

Divorce

Theme A: Relationships and families.

The Ten obligatory acts

The five pillars.

Holy books: The Quran.

Islam: Practices

The use and abuse of the environment

Theme B: Religion and life.

Sacraments

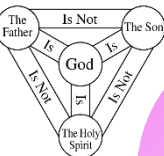

Christianity: Practices

The afterlife and judgment.

The incarnation.

The qualities of God and the Trinity.

The crucifixion, resurrection and ascension.

Places of pilgrimage

Origins of the universe and humanity.

Abortion and euthanasia

The nature and qualities of Allah.

Prophethood and the Imamate

YEAR 10

Are rights or beliefs more important?

What is prejudice and discrimination?

Abortion

Saviour siblings.

What are our human rights and why are they important?

Stephen Lawrence

How can we identify and challenge prejudice and discrimination in the world today?

The ten commandments

What is the link between religion and the media?

Euthanasia

Should humans play God?

What rules should we follow?

YEAR 9

What are life ultimate questions?

What is God like?

What do Buddhists believe about life after death?

How do religious followers conduct funerals?

Does death matter to a humanist?

Is death the end?

What will be the future of humanity?

Evolution of humanity.

Religious festivals and foods.

Religion and music.

Multiculturalism

Causes and effects of pollution across the world.

Is it our world?

YEAR 8

Important rules for Christians and Jews.

How can Muslims live a good life? (The five pillars).

Should children be brought up within a religion?

Was Jesus a rebel?

Christian, Muslim and Jewish festivals.

Martin Luther King

What are the key facts about the 6 main world religions?

Good and evil in Christianity, Islam and Buddhism.

What defines good and evil?

Hindu festivals.

How do religions commemorate?

What makes religious followers unique?

THISTLEY HOUGH ACADEMY
Creative Education Trust